TANZANIA COUNTRY LEVEL KNOWLEDGE NETWORK

Hosted by TGDLC, The Tanzania Country Level Knowledge Network for Research and Policy Development is a Countrywide Knowledge Network Project, which will leverage knowledge of national professionals in the Country and in the Diaspora through electronic discussion boards and similar platforms to harvest knowledge that will be made available to policymakers as an input for development policy planning, design, reform, implementation and evaluation.

Get prepared to be part of this knowledge sharing avenue!

The “knowledge system” will consolidate data and information from all sectors and provide an efficient, cohesive and logical platform for easier access and use by all sectors of the economy. It will facilitate the capture and consolidation of both explicit (information) and tacit (experiential or know-how) knowledge.
